Tracy Benard
National Managing Partner – Advisory

Lehigh Alum ’93
Accounting major at Lehigh

Upon graduating from Lehigh with her accounting degree in 1993, Tracy Benard started her career in the Audit practice in KPMG’s New York office. After 9 successful years in Audit, Tracy transferred to KPMG’s Advisory practice, and was promoted to Partner in 2005.

Tracy is now the National Managing Partner of KPMG’s U.S. Advisory practice. Tracy assumed this role in July 2015 after more than 22 years of experience providing assurance and consulting services to global clients, primarily in the financial services industry.

Tracy will be on campus to discuss the professional services industry, what to expect from a career in audit, tax, or advisory at KPMG and her journey at the firm into senior leadership.

Date: Thursday, February 1, 2018
Time: 4:10 p.m.–5:45 p.m.
