Craig Souser is the President/CEO of JLS Automation of York, PA. The company was founded in 1955 by Joseph L. Souser, Craig’s father. After the untimely death of Craig’s father, he and his mother operated the business with Craig taking over as President in the early 1980’s. Since that time, the company has been transformed several times from a Manufacturer’s Rep firm to a Distributor to a Systems Integrator. Today, JLS is a leading supplier of hygienic robotic packaging systems for the food industry and its customers range from contract packagers to Fortune 500 consumer packaged goods companies.

Craig has a BS in Business and Economics from Lehigh University and studied Electronics/Digital Design at Penn State York. Craig is an avid fly fisherman, an active member of First Presbyterian Church, a supporter of Logos Academy, and a Lifetime Member of Trout Unlimited.

Craig speaks frequently on the topics of Automation and Robotics and is passionate about the future of robotics in our society and supports a number of Robotics/STEM activities in the community.
